

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
SECOND APPEAL NO.234 OF 1989

Bhagwan Rama Maske and Ors.	..	Appellants
Versus
Shri Anand Tatya Kadam	..	Respondent
Mr.R.S.Apte for appellants
Mr.V.B.Rajure for respondent

CORAM : P.V.KAKADE, J.

DATE : 24TH AUGUST, 2005.

P.C.:

1. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.
2. The learned counsel for the appellants makes a statement that both the parties have settled the dispute. In support of his statement he has brought to my notice xerox copy of Pursis filed by the parties in this Appeal in Regular Civil Appeal No.52 of 2002 filed in the Court of Addl. District Judge, Islampur. the Xerox copy being uncertified copy cannot be taken on record. However, on the basis of statement made by the learned counsel for the appellants the appeal stands dismissed for want of prosecution with no order as to costs.
